

Country Ways

KENT

A popular tv series for over 20 years, Country Ways is a collection of gentle film portraits about the southern English countryside, as seen through the eyes and described in the words of people who live and work there.

A peaceful haven of beautiful sights and sounds, Country Ways also provides a lasting nostalgic record of the ways of life, arts, crafts, trades and pastimes which still exist inspite of the pressures and progress of modern times.

This DVD explores a year in the county known as 'the garden of England' through all four seasons. Among the local people we meet are farmers, farriers, smallholders, a potter, a wood carver, a weaver, fruit growers, hot air balloonists, peg tile makers and many more, all sharing their knowledge and appreciation of the great variety of life in the glorious county of Kent.
